LOS ANGELES SUFFERS FROM SEVERE STORM

Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—A rainfall so heavy as to amount to a cloudburst, marked the dawn of the New Year in Los Angeles. Car service in all parts of the city was demoralized, and in the surrounding country much damage was done to telephone and telegraph wires. Traffic on all railroads entering Los Angeles was delayed. Landslides in Cajon Pass tied up transcontinental trains on the Santa Fe and Salt Lake lines.

MILITIAS SHARE EQUALLY.

Washington, Jan. 1.—Satisfactory conformity by Jan. 21 with the law, so as to enable all states and territories to share in the amounts appropriated by congress for the organized militia is predicted by Lieut. Col. Weaver, chief of the division of militia affairs, in his annual report today to the secretary of war. Only Pennsylvania and Delaware were represented as not conforming, and he believes these states will be able to meet the conditions by Jan. 21.

GRAND ARMY VETERANS OPPOSE HONORING LEE

Chicago, Jan. 1.—Resolutions denoting the plan to place a statue of General R. E. Lee in the Hall of Fame, in Washington, "as against the public policy, against the fundamental principles, and against the honor and integrity of the veterans, who nobly gave up life and home to preserve the Union, which Robert E. Lee attempted to destroy" were adopted at a meeting of the Chicago G. A. R. today. The resolution will be sent to President Taft.

SEATTLE'S COLDEST DAY.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 1.—Today was the coldest New Year's day ever officially recorded in Seattle, the temperature having fallen from 27 above zero this afternoon with likelihood that it will be below 25 tonight. Today broke the record of 1901, which was 29 degrees. A forty-mile gale blew all day, tearing vessels from their anchorage, wrecking summer houses along the shore of the Sound and destroying, with the aid of a high tide, several hundred yards of trestle in West Seattle.

MILLIONAIRE INJURED BY SAN FRANCISCO CARS

San Francisco, Jan. 1.—S. H. Jermyn, reputed to be a multimillionaire and one of the wealthiest coal mine operators in the United States, was struck down and probably fatally injured by a street car at 2:15 o'clock this morning.

Jermyn, with several friends attempted to cross between two cars which were going in opposite directions. His friends had narrow escapes, but the millionaire was hurled several feet and picked up unconscious.

At the central emergency hospital it was found that his skull was fractured and that he was probably internally injured. Little hope was held out for his recovery early this morning.

Jermyn is about 50 years old, and has a daughter studying music in Berlin. He was a guest at the Fairmont hotel, where he has been since his arrival in San Francisco about six weeks ago.

INHUMAN CRUELTY STORY IS TOLD

Georgia Authorities Shown Up for Infliction of Tortures on Prisoners.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 1.—Further stories of inhuman cruelty to prisoners convicted of misdemeanors were told today to the council committee investigating the charges made against the management of the city prison.

Herschel Ivy, a former guard, declared Mose Johnson, a negro, told Supt. Vining he was too ill to work. Vining ordered him whipped. After the whipping the negro collapsed and was sent to a hospital, where he died a week later.

He saw a young white girl, Ruby Gaiter, chained to the walls by her hands until she fainted, and she was left there unconscious for thirty minutes. She went into convulsions.

The white women, he said, were fed from scraps picked up from the floor of the man's mess hall. Ivy said there were a hundred hens kept at the prison and that the eggs were gathered each day by Commissioner of Public Works Collier for his own use.

ACCIDENT IN CHICAGO

New Year Celebration Resulted in a Death

Chicago, Jan. 1.—Celebration of the advent of the new year resulted in the death, through the accidental discharge of a revolver, of Mrs. Frances Gardner, the wife of Blake Gardner.

Gardner, with his wife, who was 20 years old, had been spending the evening at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Netwig. At midnight, Netwig tried to fire a revolver. The first cartridge failed to explode, and when he was examining the weapon, it was accidentally discharged.

The bullet struck Mrs. Gardner, lodging in the jugular vein, and inflicting a wound from which she died. Netwig was arrested.

SHORTER WORKING HOURS.

Boston, Jan. 1.—Several hundred operatives in mills and factories in Rhode Island and Massachusetts will begin work Monday on a shorter schedule of working hours in consequence of the new 56 hour law becoming effective. The running time heretofore has been 60 hours.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

St. Louis, Jan. 1.—The seismograph of the St. Louis university recorded an earthquake which began at 5:06:42 o'clock this morning. The shock continued 30 minutes and 30 seconds, the greatest oscillation occurring at 5:10. The principal motion was from east to west.

Officials at the museum say the disturbance may have occurred somewhere in Mexico.

HOW PUBLIC IS FOOLED

Dealers Make Eggs Fresh by Making Extra Charges

Chicago, Jan. 1.—The Record-Herald, in giving an interview with a prominent South Water street merchant this morning, says:

"When you go into a grocery and ask for a dozen strictly fresh eggs and the apportion man behind the counter gives you a dozen and twelve cents change out of a half-dollar, don't glare at him angrily, but blame yourself."

"The situation is just this: You pay 33 cents a dozen for strictly fresh eggs (extras costing you 42 cents a dozen). You pay 23 cents a dozen for cold storage eggs. But no matter whether you pay 28 cents or 38 cents, you get the same eggs. They all come from some cold storage warehouse. If you were charged only 28 cents for 'strictly fresh eggs,' you would know they were cold storage eggs, so when you ask for fresh, 10 cents is tacked on to the price to make them taste better."

"All the real fresh eggs that are coming in now are being snapped up by the big hotels, and the wealthy and favored customers of a few dealers. They may pay 42 cents and even more, but the general public shouldn't pay that, for it gets no chance at the real fresh eggs anyway."

Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 1.—The Big Four Knickerbocker Limited was wrecked near Ansonia at 11:45 o'clock tonight, according to a telephone report reaching here. The train struck a defective switch, left the track and plunged through a store. The engineer and fireman were said to be badly injured.

M. de Sincay is the son of Gaston de Sincay of Brussels, who is at the head of the zinc industry of Belgium.

M. de Sincay came here last summer with excellent letters of introduction and was in Newport for the season, where he gave a dance at Berger's in return for many courtesies received.

FORGETS SPEECH; KILLS HIMSELF

Kentucky Judge Disgraced by Failing Memory Commits Suicide.

Georgetown, Ky., Jan. 1.—Because he could not remember part of the address which he was to deliver at a banquet tonight, Judge John C. Voyis, 32 years old, shot and killed himself.

Judge Voyis was well known as an after-dinner speaker; he was to speak at a New Year's celebration. When he arose to address the audience his memory failed him, and after several attempts to continue he abruptly left the room.

Later the janitor of the building stumbled over the body of the jurist.

SHAKING OF THE EARTH

Fear Is Expressed That Isthmus of Panama Met Disaster

Washington, Jan. 1.—Weather bureau officials are apprehensive lest the earthquake recorded early today occurred on the Isthmus of Panama. Colon is 2,100 miles from here and as the wave was south-southwest and calculated at about 2,000 miles distant, they believe there is some ground for their fears.

The force of the earthquake, as recorded by the weather bureau here, closely approximated the violence of the big quake at San Francisco. The bureau figures that its greatest force was felt 2,000 miles south and southwest of Washington. The first shock was at 6:04 a. m., the second at 6:08 and the third at 6:11. The third shock was so strong that it threw the delicate seismograph pen off the cylinder.

TAFTS KEEP OPEN HOUSE

Washington, Jan. 1.—The event which, from almost the first days of the republic has distinguished the celebration of the advent of the New Year in Washington, the President's reception at the White House, took on a new interest today as the first public reception planned for the administration of Mr. Taft.

On New Year's day the White House doors swing open to all the world and, during the appointed hours of the reception of citizens, the poor and humble pass in review and receive the clasp of the chief executive on equal footing with the richest of the community.

The public reception, of course, always is preceded by an hour or more of formality, when the President greets the members of the cabinet, the diplomats, the senators and representatives, the high officials of the government, the officers of the army and navy and members of the various civic organizations who pass through the famed blue room at hours especially set apart for them.

Sober ideas of the magnitude to which the New Year's reception at the White House has grown, may be had from the fact that President Roosevelt, during the last two or three years of his term, attained a high watermark of shaking hands with more than 8,000 men and women.

The early period of the reception was made gay and impressive as usual today by the presence of the diplomats in the full dress uniforms of their rank and distinction in the countries from which they are accredited. There were many new faces in the diplomatic line, which was headed by Baron DesPlanches, the Italian ambassador, dean of the corps in Washington.

The introductions were made by Colonel Spencer Crosby of the army, major domo of the White House, assisted by Captain Butts, Lieutenant Commander Palmer and others.

Mrs. Taft joined the receiving party during the early part of the reception. She remained in line until the cabinet, the supreme court and the diplomatic corps had paid their respects and then retired, leaving the remaining women of the official party to do the honors.

As usual, the public was in evidence early. It being the President's first new year reception, there was great pressure for the honor of wishing him the compliments of the season. The "citizen" contingent was made up largely of Washington people. The time for their reception had been fixed at 1 o'clock, but three hours earlier the crowds began to gather and by 11 o'clock the line stretched for blocks, extending beyond the state, war and navy department buildings and down Seventeenth street.

ZELAYA'S NEW YEAR.

Mexico City, Jan. 1.—Jose Santos Zelaya, former president of Nicaragua, spent New Year's day in his apartments here. He held to his rooms until afternoon, when he took a short drive. It is said Zelaya will make another call on President Diaz early in the week.

MRS. HARRIMAN'S GIFT.

Newburgh, N. Y., Jan. 1.—Mrs. Edward H. Harriman has offered to the State of New York for park purposes, 10,000 of the 30,000 acres included in the famous Harriman estate in Orange county.

One of the cherished intentions of the late E. H. Harriman was to give this property to the state to be used forever as a great public park, free to all the people.
